Keeping Promises

We make promises when we have to do something really important, but we should always think carefully before we make one. A promise is a bit like a knot! When its kept it stays tied together but when its broken the knot unravels!

Why is breaking a promise a bad thing to do?

If you keep your promises, will people be more likely to trust you?

.....

Why should we think carefully before making promises?

.....

Task -make a promise to help mum and dad, and keep it!
